How are you? I tried to reach you through phone before I traveled to inform you of my trip to the United Kingdom, I went for a program. I arrived a nights successfully. But presently, I have a problem in which i misplaced my wallet on my way to the hotel. Inside my wallet,I have most of my valuable items which I traveled with like my credit card, money and my telephone contact diary .

Please I need you to lend me about £1380. You should help me have it sent via Western Union Money Transfer so I can re-arrange myself and return back home. I will refund the money back to you once I am out of here . Below is the information you would require.

Name : Tamara XXX
Address: 32 Alderton High St - London W8 4PT

Please, kindly let me know if you can be of assistance as I'm seriously in need of your help. Thanks and waiting to hear from you.

Thanks,
Tamara.

Sorry to hear about your misfortune Tam! Are you sure 1380 is enough? Anything I can do to help I will! Hope you're OK.

Sincerely,
Jonathan McCorndog

It's good to know you're OK, and I'm glad 1380 is enough. I was thinking that when I am about to send the money order maybe I should give you a call right before, just so you know I'm about to send it? Also, I was curious if you would like me to send that other package of various boiled meat products that you requested several weeks ago? If you are presently in London, I thought this would be a great time to get those meats to you that I know you love so much. Anyway, get back to me as soon as possible so we can get this transaction underway!

Sincerely,
Johnny Corndogs

Thank you for your concern and right about now i don't think the meat is necessary because i am worried and frustrated being here without any money. Let forget about the Meat now maybe when i return i will request for it. Please as soon as you make the transfer email me the details because am in a cyber cafe close to the Hotel. Am waiting on you and i promise to refund you as soon as i get home.

Ok, I am just about to head out to the Western Union, but while we are chatting here, I thought I'd ask quickly, just what you'd like me to do with all of these boiled meats until you'd like them sent to you? I am currently keeping them in my neighbor's freezer, but he has told me he'd like them out of there this evening, and I'm not sure what else to do with them after I have them moved? It is also risky moving them all over, as most of the people I know, especially the neighbors, frown on the concept of boiled meats that are anything other than cow or pork products, and since these meats are all of the canine and feline variety, people would be very shocked if they knew the real truth. Please get right back to me so that I can get to the Western Union as quickly as possible!

Sincerely,
Johnny Corndogs

If only you know what am going through sitting at a Cyber cafe waiting on you to get the details for me so i can rush and start making plans to return home. I said please forget about any other thing for now just try and get to the western union and get back to me with the details and i promise to refund you as soon as i get home. Kind Regards,

Tamars

Hey Tam. Didn't mean to cause you any further frustration, but I have over 11 stones of various feline and canine boiled meats here, and I'd hate to think that all of those local animals had to die in vain (not to mention all of the nefarious actions I had to participate in to obtain that many animals) and I'd just like to know the exact actions you'd like me to take to prevent all of these meats from spoiling. I know that the last shipment I made to you arrived after all of the dry ice had evaporated, so I don't want this meat ruined again. I will be out the door as soon as I hear back from you on what to do with this product, and I will immediately send you all the money!!!! I know times are tough right now, and I just want to help you out as soon as possible with all of your needs!

Sincerely,
Johnny Corndogs

P.S. - I plan to make the transfer out for 1500 since I know you wouldn't tell me if you needed any extra, and you've always been a truly great friend to me. ;)

You know what send the money now and i would ask the Hotel if there is anywhere i can preserve the Meats here in the main time. I know it not your fault that am here but i just believe you have to render the assistance you want to so i can move ahead and the hotel management promise to throw me out if i don't have their bills at checking out time tomorrow morning so i beg you act fast on this and get back to me.

Ok, I am about to head out the door, I just was also curious about those pictures you told me you were going to take, of you posing nude, exposing yourself to the "slow" children who live down the street. Did you take those pictures yet, and if you did would you be able to email any copies? It's funny the disgusting ways in which you are always amusing yourself, so I thought I'd ask.

Sincerely,
Johnny Corndogs

P.s. - I will head out the door as soon as I get a response

Tam, I hope all is still well, and I hope you know better than to think I would be attempting to make a fool of you! You have always been one of my truest and deepest friends, and I would gladly hurl my body off of the tallest bridge in the land over our friendship. For all of the months you have been traveling, I have been making watercolor pictures of all of the times that we shared, so that I could cherish them forever! At one point the other night, I was looking at my watercolor rendering of that night we went down to the local scrembruland and twirled and twirled for hours, and I nearly wept! I hope you aren't in fact mocking me! The only reason I have the 1500 I'm planning to send you is because you inspired me to sign up for the local cosmetology school in the fall, and I have been saving up my down payment! Anyway, I will send the money as soon as I get your reply!

With the world's deepest and most heartfelt love,
Johnny Corndogs

Oh Tamars! Thank you so much for the beautiful words! I am at work right now, weeping to myself, feeling practically incontinent, thinking of you in any peril. I wish I was there right now, in person, so that I might slit the throats of the scum at the hotel who threaten to kick you out. I would like for you to send me the address of this establishment, so that on my next holiday I might travel there, for the sole reason of burning that place down, but only after raping and pillaging everyone working there! Just kidding! (But I would actually really like to do that). Anyway, I plan on running to western union in just a bit, right after I get your reply!

Very Incestually,
Johnny Corndogs

Lovely truest Tamars. Why would you say such a thing! This will not be the last time I help you, I promise that with every bit of my soul I will do my best to help you, in any way, for all of eternity! I have been reading more and more of my wicken novels and scripture, and I am starting to feel more and more that living for eternity may be a possibility for the limited few who know the secrets of the universe. The other day I had half a stone of your boiled meats, and I felt like I had been invigorated, and I feel that these animals will help in our living forever. Did I tell you about the other day when I swallowed an entire pocket calculator by accident? Anyway, the point here is that I will be helping you until the universe implodes on itself, I promise! Also, I will send the western union money as soon as I get your response, and do I need to include your middle name when I deal with the money transfer?

Lustfully and lovingly,
Johnny Corndogs

Tamars, I have full intentions of helping you! Why would you say that? In our conversations today, I have felt closer to you again than I ever have. It reminds me of back in the day when we would travel from town to town together, selling our goods and wares to the local people, humming tunes about tomfoolery and rocket ships. I just wanted to make sure that you didn't need me to include your middle name on the transfer also, "Tamara Peepants XXX." I will be out the door in just a moment to send the money order to the hotel where you are staying. Hopefully they can be trusted with the money, or I may have to follow through with my throat cutting threats.

Bloatedly,
Johnny "Hotcakes" Corndog

Thanks Tam! I plan on using cash at hand to unionize the money to the western union hotel where you are staying. Is the amount of sending hand cash still good at 1500?

Thoroughly Engorged,
Johnny Corndogs
